AN ACT

For the relief of Lucien A. Murzyn.

Lucien A.
Murzyn.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Lucien A. Murzyn, United States Army, retired (FINCS-E, W-903593), is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $837.71, representing overpayments resulting from an administrative error, of his retirement pay and allowances as a retired member of the Army while holding Federal civilian employment under the dual compensation laws of the United States. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Lucien A. Murzyn an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Sophie Stathacopulos.

Sophie Stathacopulos.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Sophie Stathacopulos, of Brooklyn, New York, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $419.86, representing an overpayment, through administrative error, of her wages during the period beginning October 14, 1962, and ending July 16, 1966, while employed by the Small Business Administration in New York, New York. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Sophie Stathacopulos, of Brooklyn, New York, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by her, or withheld from sums otherwise due her, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of James E. Denman.

June 29, 1968
[H. R. 5199]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to James E. Denman, Rural Route 1, Ashville, Ohio, the sum of $566. Such sum is the aggregate of the amounts of six United States postal money orders (serial numbers 37719, 37720, 38391, 38392, 38989, and 42345, issued in April and May 1946) purchased by the said James E. Denman and subsequently misplaced. The payment of such money orders could not lawfully be made by the Postmaster General, when such money orders were found and presented for payment, because of the provision of section 5103(d) of title 39, United States Code, which prohibits payment of money orders after twenty years from the last day of the month of original issue.
